rabbi's corner

Rabbi Aviva Bass

There is a story in the Talmud about Rabbi Akiva, a First Century rabbinic sage, and his students. According to this legend, 24,000 students of Rabbi Akiva died in a terrible plague, during the Omer period between Pesach and Shavuot. On the 33rd day of the Omer, Lag Ba'Omer, the plague ceased. There were only five students of Rabbi Akiva remaining. One of these was Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai, the Rashbi, to whom is attributed the Zohar, the seminal work of kabbalah, Jewish mysticism.

The Rashbi survived by hiding in a cave in the Galilee with his son. The legend is that they lived in that cave for 12 years, during which he studied the deepest mysteries of the Torah and received the teaching that he wrote in the Zohar. When he and his son emerged from the cave after those dozen years, they saw Jews occupying themselves with agriculture instead of Torah study, and the Rashbi became enraged. He looked at everyone and everything going about their daily lives, and his rage was so powerful that his very glance killed all he looked upon. At that moment, a Bat Kol, a heavenly voice came down and said to him "Did you emerge from your cave to destroy my world? Return to your cave!" According to this story, Rashbi returned to the cave with his son, saying, "You and I are all that are necessary for the entire world."

We are beginning to emerge from our caves of the past 15 months of the pandemic, our terrible plague which has killed so many in our country and the world, and which is ongoing and raging in some areas of the world. We, the survivors, are trying to emerge from our caves into some feeling of normalcy. Some of us look upon others who are making different choices in their reemergence than we are, and we sometimes become frustrated, even perhaps enraged. What this story teaches us is not that we should return to our caves to live out the remainder of our lives within our own households, but rather what the Bat Kol says to the Rashbi.

Do we emerge from our caves just to continue the way we have been without having learned anything from our sequestering? Did we not learn how much we rely on one another, on outside contact, on socialization? We cannot afford to become dismissive of one another. We need to celebrate being able to congregate in whatever ways each of us feels comfortable and not to judge each other's decisions.

As we reemerge after our hibernation, it takes a while to get our bearings. We may make one decision one day and another the next, as we navigate what it means to be fully vaccinated in a world in which COVID numbers may vacillate and some people, both those fully vaccinated and those who refuse to get vaccines, may be unmasked.

It is new territory for all of us. But I ask you not to give in to the impulse to return to your cave altogether. We need one another more than ever. And I look forward to greeting each of you as you become ready to reemerge.

Warmly,

Rabbi Aviva

Dear Betti and Lynne,

On behalf of over 1 million individuals struggling to put food on the table throughout Palm Beach, Broward, Miami-Dade, and Monroe Counties, we thank you for your generous $1,518 donation, with check dated 5/7/2021, to Feeding South Florida.

To learn more about our programs and different ways you can get involved year-round, please visit us at www.feedingsouthflorida.org.

Thank you for helping us change lives one meal at a time. Together, we are Feeding South Florida!

Sincerely,

What's Happening?

Reopening and virtual, too!

We're so happy! If you haven't heard, our sanctuary is open for Friday night Erev Shabbat worship services. Members and friends are welcome. Adults, please bring proof of vaccination the first time you attend Erev Shabbat services. For unvaccinated students, masks are required. For others, masks are a personal choice.

We also continue to broadcast every service for those who worship at home. We have new cameras installed in the sanctuary and a few volunteers are being trained to operate this equipment. People are finding our services on the internet and have become regular viewers. This seems to be working as a new way of "shul-shopping." Please encourage your local friends and family to "tune in" and then to visit us in person when they are ready! Also, let them know we're having an Open House on Sunday, August 8th. Details to follow.

High Holy Days Start on Labor Day?

Yes, it's true! Erev Rosh Hashanah is on Monday, September 6th, Labor Day.

Joyfully, we are planning services in our sanctuary. Look for information and ticket request forms in your "snail mail" by the end of June and please help us by responding as quickly as possible. We will also offer the option of virtual services.

Fun and Kindness at Temple Sinai

Please read the thank you letter from "Feeding South Florida" on page 6, for our donation of ten percent of the net profit from the virtual Gala last March. We are so proud that we brought in much-needed funds for Temple Sinai, and we also helped to provide over 13,000 meals for those in need. Thank you for showing that you LOVE helping the hungry while supporting your Temple.

Now, let's do it again. Our newest fundraiser (and FUN-raiser) is Fantasy Stock Picks. Build your fantasy portfolio from a list of 50 stocks and compete with others to see whose choices do the best over a three month period. You could win a generous cash prize if your fantasy stocks do well, or have a chance at the last place "consolation prize" if not. Best of all, ten percent of the net proceeds will be donated to the Palm Beach County Food Bank.

See contest information on pages 9-11 and watch for the forms in your mailbox very soon.

Cantor Jake

With such mixed feelings, we say farewell to Cantor Jake. In his short time at Temple Sinai, he has elevated our congregation in many ways. He brought us original compositions and beautiful renditions of the "classics" of liturgical and other Jewish music with his versatile voice, as well as fresh energy and new techniques to our Choir. He has been a beloved mentor and teacher to our Religious School and B'nai Mitzvah students and families. With his willingness to learn how to use new technology, he was focused on making us look and sound our best virtually, throughout this past year. We are certainly sorry to see him move on, but excited for his bright future. We know Cantor Jake will succeed at whatever he attempts.

SAVE ON TAXES?

You can avoid taxes and save money by having a distribution from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) sent directly to Temple Sinai. The donation can be used to pay dues, towards a temple project or as a general donation (this can be used by the Temple as needed). The funds must be sent as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). Contact us about your plans, then ask your IRA trustee or custodian how to proceed.

You can avoid capital gains taxes on appreciated shares of stock that you own by donating the shares to Temple Sinai. As above, the money can be used for any temple bill, project or as a general donation.

Contact us and we will give you instructions on what to tell your broker. After the shares are transferred to our account, we will sell them and credit your account for the net proceeds (after the fees and expenses are paid). If you have stock that you don't want to sell because of the taxes, this is a win/win for both you and Temple Sinai.

You should realize savings even if you don't itemize. If you do, it shouldn't count as income AND you should be able to take the deduction. As with any financial matter, you should consult your own financial representative or tax advisor to see if these techniques will benefit you.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

Dear Brotherhood Members and Friends,

Our Zoom Entertainment Series has been a big success. April featured Cantor Jake Harris, Cantor Rachel Slusky and Dr. Alan Mason. We had over 160 email addresses that watched the show. Everyone I spoke to told me the show was a big hit and I agree. They put a lot of time and energy into making this show. Thank you to Jake, Rachel, and Alan for doing this for Brotherhood. Our last two entertainers were Ricky Penn and Rabbi Mark Winer, who is an appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth II. Both presentations were enjoyed by everyone.

At our Concert in April we had our Raffle Drawing. Cantor Jake Harris drew the winning tickets:

1st Prize of $1000.00 went to Sherry Friedman

2nd Prize of $500.00 went to M. Mogel

3rd Prize of a plaque went to Roger Shaw.

We were happy that everything went smoothly, and everyone was happy.

Last November I (Stan) was asked to be Co-President of Brotherhood and I accepted. Times were terrible, and the Pandemic was coming on strong. We wanted to bring some cheer into your lives with once-a-month entertainers, and I think it worked. The second thing we brought to you was the Raffle, and we turned over to the Temple all monies raised - $5,280. This money was earmarked for technology in the Sanctuary. We believe this will bring Temple Sinai closer to our membership that can't get out.

Both Co-President terms expire June 30, 2021. We encourage you to be in touch with Temple Sinai Brotherhood and let them know what you would like to see happen going forward at Brotherhood@templesinaipbc.org.

See you at the Temple soon,

Stan Rieger and Marty Gerber

Condolence Notices

When our congregants experience a loss in their immediate family (spouse, sibling, parent, child) we want to send out a condolence notice via email, notifying the rest of the congregation in a timely manner. Rabbi Aviva also wants to make sure to add them to the list of recent deaths (within the past 30 days) that is read on Shabbat. This depends entirely on the surviving family providing the following information to our office staff at 561-276-6161 Ext. 123 or 112, or to Rabbi Aviva at (954) 330-4434.

- Name and date of the deceased (before or after sundown)
- Time and place of the funeral or memorial service
- Time and address of the Shiva following the funeral or memorial service
- Information on where to make a donation in memory of the deceased
