rabbi's corner

Rabbi Aviva Bass

With the fall schedule of chagim now completed, most of us turn to other secular holidays as we start to see more candy on the supermarket shelves and costume shops opening. We may begin to think about Thanksgiving meals as pumpkin patches open.

Yet are the secular celebrations of Halloween and Thanksgiving “kosher” for American Jews to celebrate? Why or why not? What do most Reform rabbis say about these holidays?

Most scholars believe that Halloween is derived from an ancient Celtic pagan celebration called Samhain which celebrated the end of the harvest and the beginning of the darker winter months. It was believed that at this time, the boundary between the living and the dead was thinner, enabling spirits to enter the homes of the living. The souls of the dead were thought to come to seek hospitality.

Rituals of the occult were observed like divination, trying to see the future, appeasing the spirit world, and warding off demons. By the 18th Century, imitating the evil spirits led to a tradition of wearing costumes and playing pranks on others. By the 20th Century, these practices had spread to England.

Christianity also played a role in the development of the holiday we now know as Halloween. In the 9th Century, Pope Gregory IV decided to place the Christian holiday of All Hallows’ Day on the same date of Samhain, the 1st of November.

In America, it was not until the mid-19th Century that Halloween became widely celebrated with the mass immigration to the United States from Ireland and Scotland at that time. By the first few decades of the 20th Century, Halloween had gained popularity and was celebrated as a secular children’s costume-wearing holiday of trick-or-treating and collecting and eating candy.

Today, some Christians worldwide still observe All Hallows’ Day or, in the Lutheran calendar, Reformation Day. Others believe that Halloween celebrates the occult and should be avoided altogether for that reason.

Because of its origins, some Jews believe we should not celebrate Halloween. Most Reform Jews argue that Halloween has become so divorced from its Christian (and earlier pagan) origins that it is a fully secular holiday, acceptable to be celebrated as a fun day of costumes and candy, especially by children.

As a Reform rabbi, I do not believe that celebrating this secular holiday does any harm to us as Jews. My own family has chosen to dress up in costumes and trick-or-treat since my sons were young. Halloween today is a time of fun, family, and community celebrations.

As to Thanksgiving, we are much more homogeneous in our beliefs, as Jews of all denominations celebrate this Fall celebration of gratitude for the harvest. This year, there is actually a Jewish holiday to celebrate on Thanksgiving as well, since Hanukkah begins the same weekend!

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Warmly,

Rabbi Aviva

Dear Members and Friends,

Your outpouring of appreciation on our 5782 High Holy Days services means more than you will ever know.

Compliments are always welcomed, but this year required so much flexibility and understanding that it felt like we scaled a mountain. And to hear that so many people were moved made it completely worth all of the work and worry. We are very grateful to Rabbi Aviva, Rabbi Brett Tancer and Dr. David Macfarlane. The High Holy Day Committee, set-up crew, ushers and Tech Team all had to adapt to changes. We thank every one of them for honoring our Temple with their hard work.

As we start a new season of hope, good things are happening at Temple Sinai. We are so excited to welcome Student Cantor Daniel Geigerman to our Bima! (see page 9)

Temple Sinai and our magnificent Temple Sinai Library are the proud sponsors of a powerful exhibit at the Delray Beach Library, "Americans and the Holocaust" (see page 8). This exhibit from the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum examines the questions, "What did Americans know, and what more could have been done?" There are 20 relevant presentations scheduled throughout the weeks of the exhibit, all available to the public at no charge. The exhibit runs from October 6th to November 17th. There are program booklets available in our lobby or go to DelrayLibrary.org for the listing.

We have added 27 new members to our family since July (and calls are still coming in).

The six dedicated women in the Adult B'not Mitzvah Class will have their very special day in November, after many twists and turns.

Adult Education's "Sundays at Sinai" programs start back in person AND Zoom, on October 17th with a relevant and interesting topic, "How American Jews Vote and Why." (see page 13)

Religious School is in full swing with a talented new director, Alyssa Polny, a former student of our Religious School! The School is still accepting students from 3rd grade and up, with a new incentive program.

The charismatic new co-leaders of our NFTY teen youth group are busy planning activities and growing their group. If you know local Jewish teens, please let us know, so Hayden and Kyle can reach out to them.

Brotherhood and Sisterhood are planning activities both as separate groups and together (see page 14).

We have so much to look forward to! But, due to Covid, we still have big challenges in major fundraising. We really need our entire congregation to help us move past these financial difficulties. We extend our heartfelt thanks to those who have returned their High Holy Day pledge cards. EVERY donation makes a difference and is a show of confidence in the bright future of Temple Sinai.

So thankful to be moving ahead with all of YOU, our Temple Sinai Family!

Lynne Weinstein & Betti Adams

SAVE ON TAXES?

You can avoid taxes and save money by having a distribution from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) sent directly to Temple Sinai. The donation can be used to pay dues, towards a temple project or as a general donation (this can be used by the Temple as needed). The funds must be sent as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). Contact us about your plans, then ask your IRA trustee or custodian how to proceed.

You can avoid capital gains taxes on appreciated shares of stock that you own by donating the shares to Temple Sinai. As above, the money can be used for any temple bill, project or as a general donation.

Contact us and we will give you instructions on what to tell your broker. After the shares are transferred to our account, we will sell them and credit your account for the net proceeds (after the fees and expenses are paid). If you have stock that you don't want to sell because of the taxes, this is a win/win for both you and Temple Sinai.

You should realize savings even if you don't itemize. If you do, it shouldn't count as income AND you should be able to take the deduction. As with any financial matter, you should consult your own financial representative or tax advisor to see if these techniques will benefit you.

***OUR FIRST SUBMISSION *** NEW TABLET FEATURE***

*An Original Poem by FRAN SACHS, Temple Sinai Member
July, 2021*

5782

An eternity, in reality eighteen months
Covid's nightmare strangling grip — death, despair, hibernation
Slowly begins to recede.
A new normality arises,
Untested, fresh, different, frightening.
Yet we persist, inch slowly forward, ever forward.

Now the Days of Awe beckon,
Long lost hope returns to our hearts, our minds.
Together once again in sacred spaces.
Communal prayers rising,
Voices chant as one,
Together family, friends, neighbors bonding
Uplifting, support one another.

Tishrei's transformative powers encourage Rebirth,
Renewal,
Setting a new vision.

We journey inward,
Search to understand life's purpose.
Captured by the future's magnetic pull,
Its unique possibilities excite us.
Finally, reject the past's viral consequences.

Acknowledge this optimism and opportunity,
With each heartfelt, joyous Shana Tovah greeting.

Condolence Notices

When our congregants experience a loss in their immediate family (spouse, sibling, parent, child) we want to send out a condolence notice via email, notifying the rest of the congregation in a timely manner. Rabbi Aviva also wants to make sure to add them to the list of recent deaths (within the past 30 days) that is read on Shabbat. This depends entirely on the surviving family providing the following information to our office staff at 561-276-6161 Ext. 112, or to Rabbi Aviva at (954) 330-4434.

- Name and date of the deceased (before or after sundown)
- Time and place of the funeral or memorial service
- Time and address of the Shiva following the funeral or memorial service
- Information on where to make a donation in memory of the deceased

Let your Temple Family be there for your sorrows as well as your Simchas.
