rabbi's corner

Rabbi Aviva Bass

Dear Friends,

It is with bittersweet feelings that I write this, my last Tablet article for Temple Sinai. I have been the rabbi at Temple Sinai of Palm Beach County for almost six and a half years now, and I have had the blessing and privilege to get to know many of you well. I have been with many of you while you were in the hospital or lost loved ones. I have shared rites of passage. I have shared good times and bad. I cherish that you opened your homes, hearts, and lives with me.

Temple Sinai has been a sacred place for me and for my family as well. Its bimah was a holy obstacle for me to climb for the truly "High" Holy Days of 2018, when I was injured and had just had extensive surgery on my broken ankle—only achieved with the help of modern pain medication! The bimah has also been a blessing to my family during our rites of passage. Not only did I officiate at weddings and B'nai mitzvah upon it; I experienced them. My own chuppah stood there five years ago, and my sons' joint B'nai Mitzvah service was celebrated there a little over two years ago. Our family's names are etched in the stone walkway leading to the front door of the synagogue, and our names adorn the Joy of Torah, Torah of our Lives, and the L'dor Vador Walls. It was a unique experience to be part of designing some of these installations with the artists, and now it is especially meaningful to know that they remain with the community I have loved for these years. I will never forget the gifts of your kindness and friendship to my family through all of these times.

As I continue onward on my rabbinic journey, I will be the new rabbi for Conservative Temple Beth El of West Palm Beach. I will remain in contact with Temple Sinai, and I would welcome hearing from any of you periodically about how you are doing.

Serving Temple Sinai has truly been one of the highlights of my rabbinic career to date. May Temple Sinai's eternal light never wane and may all of you go from strength to strength.

With love,

Rabbi Aviva

“a musical message from Student Cantor Dan”

What is pluralism? I asked myself this when I was looking to transfer to my new Jewish seminary and found the Academy for Jewish Religion, AJR. Coming from Hebrew Union College, the seminary affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism, I was curious to read the description on AJR's website that said that it ordains both rabbis and cantors “who combine their mastery of the intellectual and spiritual richness of our tradition with openness to its application in the pluralistic, contemporary Jewish community, and an awareness of living in the presence of God.” This idea of pluralism, or “a system in which two or more states, groups, principles...coexist,” was intriguing. I was sold on AJR when I read that their graduates “serve both movement-affiliated and non-affiliated congregations in North America and around the world.”

The majority of my studies during my four years at HUC were dedicated to the application of Jewish music traditions in the Reform movement, but I felt there was missing something. Over the past few trimesters at AJR I have taken classes focusing more on rabbinic skills. In this modern approach to Jewish studies, I have taken classes like homiletics (the art of writing and delivering sermons) multiple classes in pastoral counseling, peace studies, and entrepreneurship. Not your average course list for a future Reform cantor. I feel truly blessed to be here at Temple Sinai where I can apply these skills in new and interesting ways such as our recent Pesach morning service where I included the T'filat Tal or Prayer for Dew normally only prayed in more traditional congregations. You all have given me a place to grow in ways I did not know I could two years ago. I look forward to see what is coming next.

Student Cantor Dan,

Student Cantor Daniel Geigerman

Hello All,

I'm happy and proud to have nearly completed my first year of mentoring. I met a fine young man from our neighbor Atlantic Community High School, and we've mutually agreed to continue our relationship next year.

On a personal note, it's been an eye-opening experience that I'm happy to have accomplished. A special and personal thanks goes to Sima Greenblat, a member of our Social Action Committee for suggesting it to me.

The Mentoring program does wonderful work for our children with an impressive success rate of college graduates. If anyone would like to learn more, I'd love to answer any questions.

My cell phone is 561-317-8351, and email is frbean@aol.com.

Best regards for a sweet and happy Pesach.

We truly appreciate the many years Rabbi Aviva Bass has been our spiritual leader and teacher. We are grateful to Rabbi Aviva, Scott and her family, and on behalf of our congregation, wish them well.

Please know that during this transitional time, Temple Sinai, with your help, will continue to be the warm and welcoming place that draws you into worship, educational and social programs.

It's encouraging to see that some of our members have been enjoying in person services and activities again. We hope more of you who are able, will get re-acquainted with the good feelings that come with attending Shabbat services in the sanctuary and schmoozing at the Oneg.

We're grateful we are able to provide our worship services virtually. We know it can be a lifeline for those who cannot attend in person. But there is no comparison with the warmth of greeting people face to face, praying together and enjoying a small nosh afterward. To enhance the Friday night experience, plans are in progress for a Shabbat Dinner in June, and musicians at some Onegs throughout the summer, so please watch for more details. Also, our Shabbat Choir will be singing on May 20th and more often going forward.

An important lesson from the past couple of years is that the friendly relationships and camaraderie you build with other people are what makes Temple Sinai special. With this in mind, we encourage you to participate in at least one of the "Getting to Know You" Zoom sessions every other Thursday night.

This is a new way for members to learn about their fellow congregants. Those who have attended are glad they did and often return to meet more people! One participant summed it up by saying, "Now I know not only names and faces, but also something about you to say hello to people when I attend Friday night."

Watch for the Zoom invitation in your email every other Thursday. No reservations required, no commitment beyond one hour or so on that Thursday night. (But you are welcome to attend more than once). Those who show up are greeted and given the simple instructions. Then everyone "magically" ends up in small "breakout rooms" with a prompt to discuss, such as "What song brings back the most memories for you?" "What is your favorite hobby these days?" The answers you hear may surprise you. You also might find people who share your interests or ideas or come from your hometown.

Our member, Barbara Weinberg, makes it simple for the participants to be whisked into a few different groups throughout the hour. Many thanks to Barbara, for putting this idea into action!

We also hope to schedule some small casual weekday afternoon gatherings in the Social Hall to schmooze during the summer months.

We will keep you informed of progress in the search for a one-year interim Rabbi in collaboration with our advisors from the Union for Reform Judaism. Both of us remain available to respond to your questions and ideas to contribute to the success of Temple Sinai.

Warm regards,

Lynne & Betti

a toast welcoming NEW & RETURNING MEMBERS

AN ALIYAH Is an honor.

One of the privileges of membership at Temple Sinai is to receive an Aliyah. Aliyot are given to all members to celebrate a birthday, graduation, anniversary, a bris or birth, a wedding, a B'nai Mitzvah, or for any special occasion.

TORAH READINGS & ALIYOT

Reading Torah - is an extraordinary privilege and a joyous gift.

Aliyot - an aliyah is the honor of standing by the Torah when it is read and reciting the blessings before and after the reading.

OTHER HONORS FOR WHICH CONGREGANTS MAY BE CALLED TO THE BIMAH ARE:

Petihah - the honor of opening and closing the Ark.

Gelilah - the honor of rolling up the Torah, fastening the belt, and replacing the Torah mantle and crown.

Hagbah - the honor of lifting the Torah and holding it open and upright for the congregation to see.

Shabbat Candle Lighting - the honor of leading the congregation in reciting the candle blessing.

Kiddush - the honor of leading the congregation in reciting the blessing over the wine.

Torah Carrier - the honor of holding and carrying the Torah scroll during the Torah procession.

Members participating should feel no obligation to make a contribution. It is our aim to give every member an Aliyah during the year.

When given a Bima Honor, Honor the Bima with appropriate attire. (Due to a safety issue, no flip flops).

Contact Lynne Weinstein at 561- 276-6161 x122 to arrange an aliyah or other honor for your special occasion.

Temple Sinai Brotherhood News

May - June 2022

Temple Sinai Brotherhood is about helping Temple Sinai and Judaism. How we can get to know each other better in the process. How we can share our life experiences and have fun in the process. And especially help support our Temple and community.

Upcoming activities for 2022.

- Sunday Bingo Brunch. Expected over $1000 cash prizes! May 22nd at 9:30 AM
- Brotherhood Shabbat

Last month's board meeting was a very special event. Brotherhood Board Member Marvin Ravikoff and his wife Norma with help from Lenny Model prepared and served delicious knishes! Best knishes we have ever had. This event was opened to all and we had a great turn out. We also had a speaker, Mike Saunders former New York Knickerbockers (Knicks) Basketball trainer. We plan to continue special events at our board meetings to encourage attendance and involvement in Brotherhood and helping our Temple.

Back to regular Brotherhood business. New Temple members get a 1st year complimentary membership in Brotherhood. All others are welcome to join. Our dues are $18 annually or $100 for lifetime. Call the number below or email.

We welcome all members to our monthly board meetings which are usually the first Thursday evening of the month.

We also welcome help with our projects and events. Please let us know if something interests you!

Condolence Notices

When our congregants experience a loss in their immediate family (spouse, sibling, parent, child) we want to send out a condolence notice via email, notifying the rest of the congregation in a timely manner. Rabbi Aviva also wants to make sure to add them to the list of recent deaths (within the past 30 days) that is read on Shabbat. This depends entirely on the surviving family providing the following information to our office staff at 561-276-6161 Ext. 112, or to Rabbi Aviva at (954) 330-4434.

- Name and date of the deceased (before or after sundown)
- Time and place of the funeral or memorial service
- Time and address of the Shiva following the funeral or memorial service
- Information on where to make a donation in memory of the deceased

...along with all of the ill among us. Grant insight to those who bring healing, courage and faith to those who are sick, love and strength to us and to all who love them. God, let your spirit rest upon all who are ill and comfort them. May they and we soon know a time of complete healing, a healing of the body and a healing of the spirit and let us say: Amen.

SAVE ON TAXES?

You can avoid taxes and save money by having a distribution from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) sent directly to Temple Sinai. The donation can be used to pay dues, towards a temple project or as a general donation (this can be used by the Temple as needed). The funds must be sent as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). Contact us about your plans, then ask your IRA trustee or custodian how to proceed.

You can avoid capital gains taxes on appreciated shares of stock that you own by donating the shares to Temple Sinai. As above, the money can be used for any temple bill, project or as a general donation.

Contact us and we will give you instructions on what to tell your broker. After the shares are transferred to our account, we will sell them and credit your account for the net proceeds (after the fees and expenses are paid). If you have stock that you don't want to sell because of the taxes, this is a win/win for both you and Temple Sinai.

You should realize savings even if you don't itemize. If you do, it shouldn't count as income AND you should be able to take the deduction. As with any financial matter, you should consult your own financial representative or tax advisor to see if these techniques will benefit you.

Co-Treasurers
