CREATION CORNER

Showcasing the Many Unique
Talents of Our Members

We want to showcase your creativity to the entire Congregation!

Share your unique skills with us, e.g.
an original joke to make us smile - (clean of course), poem, short story or an original song , painting, recipe or drawing.

Send us your fun and entertaining original content and we will place it in our
"CREATION CORNER."

Please submit your work for consideration by email (in PDF, Word or JPEG) to CreationCorner@TempleSinaiPBC.org
or by snail mail to Temple Sinai, Attn.
Creation Corner, 2475 W. Atlantic Ave.,
Delray Beach, FL 33445.

SAVE ON TAXES?

You can avoid taxes and save money by having a distribution from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) sent directly to Temple Sinai. The donation can be used to pay dues, towards a temple project or as a general donation (this can be used by the Temple as needed). The funds must be sent as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). Contact us about your plans, then ask your IRA trustee or custodian how to proceed.

You can avoid capital gains taxes on appreciated shares of stock that you own by donating the shares to Temple Sinai. As above, the money can be used for any temple bill, project or as a general donation.

Contact us and we will give you instructions on what to tell your broker. After the shares are transferred to our account, we will sell them and credit your account for the net proceeds (after the fees and expenses are paid). If you have stock that you don't want to sell because of the taxes, this is a win/win for both you and Temple Sinai.

You should realize savings even if you don't itemize. If you do, it shouldn't count as income AND you should be able to take the deduction. As with any financial matter, you should consult your own financial representative or tax advisor to see if these techniques will benefit you.

Co-Treasurers

"a musical message from Student Cantor Dan"

Well, it's that time of year when all the little rabbis and cantors gather around the table to plan High Holy Days, and I'm so excited for this year. As many of you already know, Rabbi Allison Cohen will be joining me on the bimah for this year for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur as well as S'lichot and our Open House in August. Rabbi Cohen and I have known each other for a decade, and I have never met a more thoughtful and intellectual leader. Our goal for planning this year's HHDs is focused on remembering and revitalizing the traditions of Temple Sinai while also bringing our own, unique styles to the holidays. I can't wait.

It has also been two months since Rabbi Aviva's path in life split from the temple, and I could not be prouder of this community as many have had to step up as our responsibilities have changed. My thanks and appreciation go out to our staff, lay leadership, the board and committees, and many congregants as these changes take place. From a personal standpoint, I have been blessed to be given such a rare opportunity to lead this community. Not only because I am still a student, but a solo cantor in any synagogue is a newer and more modern idea.

I will close with a message from Rabbi Cohen. "I am really looking forward to joining the Temple Sinai family as together, we take time for introspection, connection, and welcoming in the Jewish New Year!"

Student Cantor Dan is doing a stellar job in serving our spiritual needs in recent weeks. He is also preparing three students for B'nai Mitzvah. We are so grateful for his abilities and willingness to share them with us.

We are thrilled that Rabbi Allison Cohen will be officiating along with Student Cantor Dan Geigerman for High Holy Day worship. The small High Holy Day Rabbi Search Committee (Sue Wexler, Lori Weiss-Woeltjen and Helene Wartel) interviewed several candidates sent to us by the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR) and without question, Rabbi Cohen was the most appropriate choice.

Rabbi Cohen currently serves Holy Cross Health (Hospital) in Fort Lauderdale, Florida as a Certified Clinical Chaplain. Prior to her Certification for Chaplaincy, she served as an Assistant Rabbi and then the Associate Rabbi of Congregation B'nai Israel in Boca Raton, FL. She graduated magna cum laude from Brandeis University with a major in Sociology and a minor in Music and was ordained by Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion where she also received her Master's in Hebrew Letters. In rabbinical school, she was honored with the Israel Bettan Memorial Prize for the Most Creative Sermon in the Scheuer Chapel.

Rabbi Cohen and Student Cantor Dan have already begun to collaborate, and we are sure this year's worship will be inspiring, beautiful and memorable.

We have a search in progress for an Interim Rabbi to guide us while we do a thorough search for a permanent (settled) rabbi. An Interim Rabbi's purpose is to work with the congregation to set up the new permanent rabbi for longevity and success.

“An Interim Rabbi is prepared to hit the ground running, leading services, lifecycle events and dealing with the synagogue's transition issues to assess priorities, values and identity,” explains Skylar Cohen, Chair of the URJ Conference of Presidents and member of the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) Strengthening Congregations Team.

Our goal for Temple Sinai is to have a rabbi with all of the important attributes to fulfill your needs, plus the extra training that an interim rabbi receives, to help us identify who we are and how we can best function going forward. This is what is strongly suggested by the CCAR when a congregation is in a transition period.

Why do we describe our current state as a transitional period? Our issues right now include: a lack of new Temple lay leaders in the pipeline, many members who are either unable to worship in person or have changed their habits and prefer to worship at home and need to be re-engaged and financial challenges. Most of the above are due to Covid, but regardless of the reason, with the help of a trained Interim Rabbi, we hope to find solutions.

We want a permanent rabbi to be able to concentrate on leading worship, teaching, pastoral care, lifecycle events and not have to try to fix the issues above at the same time. To repeat, we want to set up our future permanent rabbi for longevity and success.

An interim rabbi will also be a guide as we search for a permanent (settled) rabbi. We are grateful to have the advice, assistance and wisdom of the CCAR and the Union For Reform Judaism's professionals in this most important task. Please understand, our success will all depend on the availability of suitable candidates. We will keep you informed on the interim search and the plans for the search for a permanent rabbi next year.

B'Shalom,

Lynne & Betti

"Between Book Ends"

Your Temple Sinai Librarian on the Road! What does a bookie (librarian) do on an extended road trip? High on the list is I always brake for book sales! You never know what gems you will find. But on this particular road trip, I planned a stop in Amherst, Massachusetts, a lovely college town in the Berkshires with lots of interesting history, museums, not to mention gorgeous scenery. This trip was planned with a special stop in mind. From the many book donations received at our library, I had accumulated a number of Yiddish language books which I would ordinarily have shipped to the Yiddish Book Center in Amherst. This time, I was determined to hand deliver them and take a tour of this incredible place. If you do know about the Yiddish Book Center, I highly recommend reading about its founding in a book written by Aaron Lansky. He is the founder and author of the book, entitled "Outwitting History." It's a great read and it is available in our own Temple Sinai Library.

The opportunity to actually present these books in person and explore the exhibits there was definitely worth the trip. There was a wonderful photographic exhibit of pre-war European synagogues which no longer exist as well as information on the history of the Book Center and all the projects which they have undertaken in not only collecting Yiddish books, but also translating and digitizing them and make them available on line to all of us FOR FREE. We had wonderful conversations with several of the volunteers and staff and an opportunity to explore the collection. Of course, I could not resist a visit to their book store and purchased a couple of books for our own library. The building which is on the lovely campus of Hampshire College is contemporary in style, but also reminiscent of Architecture of the shtetl. All in all, a wonderful experience.

Now that I am back in my library cocoon, I look forward to seeing you all at my second home in the Temple Sinai Library.

"Hamakom yenachem etchem b'toch she'ar aveley tzion v'Yerushalayim."

Temple Sinai mourns the passing of our cherished member, Michele Levy <sup>z"l</sup>. Michele was past President of Temple Sinai Sisterhood, and a member of the Board of Trustees. We send heartfelt condolences to her husband, Eugene, their son, William and to their devoted extended family.

DONATIONS IN MEMORY OF LOVED ONES CAN BE MADE TO TEMPLE SINAI.

(To make a donation, please call the Temple office or go online.

1. Go to our website TempleSinaipbc.org.
2. Scroll down to the bottom of the page.
3. Click on the small donate button next to the word "DIRECTIONS."
4. Choose the amount you'd like to donate and other options from the drop-down menu.

Condolence Notices

When our congregants experience a loss in their immediate family (spouse, sibling, parent, child) we want to send out a condolence notice via email, notifying the rest of the congregation in a timely manner. Our clergy also wants to make sure to add them to the list of recent deaths (within the past 30 days) that is read on Shabbat. This depends entirely on the surviving family providing the following information to our office staff at 561-276-6161 x112, or Co-Presidents, Lynne Weinstein x116 or Betti Adams x122.

- Name and date of the deceased (before or after sundown)
- Time and place of the funeral or memorial service
- Time and address of the Shiva following the funeral or memorial service
- Information on where to make a donation in memory of the deceased

Let your Temple Family be there for your sorrows as well as your Simchas.

God, let your spirit rest upon all who are ill and comfort them. May they and we soon know a time of complete healing, a healing of the body and a healing of the spirit and let us say: Amen.
